With Sally

Gossip over the backyard fence:

"So I said to her husband, 'John,' says I, 'It's not me that should be telling these you these things, but Sally's at it again—'"

"And him having warned her so many times—ruining his reputation with no more regard for him than that! Although I always did say she wasn't fit for John to wipe his feet on, the flighty way she forgets to order scratch feed from Lucca Ravioli, and them poor chickens up to their ears in mud . . ."

"Yes, and the way she irons his shirts with wrinkles in them when Beeson Cleaners would do a good job so cheap. No wonder his hair is thinning out . . ."

"I don't think she even feeds him enough. They do say he stops at Daly City Cut Rate Market every morning and buys those pippin apples for his breakfast."

"Everyone at the party was embarrassed for John. And them that wasn't embarrassed was laughing at him. And Sally thinking it all a joke—oh, she's a hardened one. Women that takes their husband's name and then drags it down to ridicule . . ."

"Making him the laughing stock of the town, that's what she's doing. You can bet a sack full of onions from Farmer's Market that she sent him off to the Daly City theatre that night on purpose. Every time his back is turned she's—"

"Tak, tak, tak. It'll drive him to drink some day, the poor man. Gelsi's Place sells the finest liquor in California, but it's no man should be drinking it to hide a broken heart . . ."

"Half the town was there. We was all eating some of that delicious chocolate cake she buys at Geneva Bakery and some strawberry ice-cream from Westlake Market, when Sally without any regard for John . . ."

"I don't know what times are coming to these days. It's a Topsy Turvy World. I'm going to the Daly City theatre Thursday night just to see that Topsy Turvy show."

"MAISIE'S" GOLD RUSH IS A LAUGH RUSH

Maisie's back! Her gold rush is a laugh rush as she hitch-hikes her way to a ghost town, turns gold digger, and leaves a woman-hating bachelor just a ghost of himself! Ann Sothern again enacts the stranded showgirl in "Gold Rush Maisie," her latest laugh adventure, with Lee Bowman, Slim Summerville and Virginia Weidler in featured roles. The picture is now showing at the Daly City theatre.

More Room With Mirrors
The long polished plate glass mirrors brightening the interior of the new aluminum, rubber-sprung and rubber-wheeled luxury subway car placed in service in New York recently have a definite psychological function, designer Frank Shepard explains. They "multiply" the apparent space and lure passengers away from car doors, points of greatest congestion in rush hours.

A Recipe For Apple Time

By Frances Lee Barton

As the varieties of apples ripen on your own trees or appear in your local stores, new apple recipes should be sought and tried. Here is one that will become an immediate favorite—healthful, economical and delicious:

Raggedy Anne

3 cups apples, pared and sliced
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons butter or other shortening
3/4 cup milk

Sweeten apples to taste and steam slightly. Set aside to cool. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk all at once and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out immediately on slightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll 1/4 inch thick and cover with cooled apples. Shape into long roll, pressing edges together. Cut in 1-inch slices. Place in greased pan, 8x8x2 inches. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 45 minutes. After first 10 minutes of baking add about 1/4 of sauce. Baste frequently with remaining sauce. Serve hot with Cinnamon Sauce. Serves 9.

Cinnamon Sauce

1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 1/2 cups water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Combine ingredients in order given and cook 1 minute.

Jack-o'-Lantern Yum-Yums

By Frances Lee Barton

A HALLOWEEN lunch would be decidedly lacking without at least one dish prepared with this holiday in mind. Grown-ups will agree to this as promptly as the children. Here is a 1940 recipe—good for Halloween and for long, long after:

Jack-o'-Lantern Yum-yums

- 4 tablespoons sugar
- 3 tablespoons water
- 1 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate
- 1/4 teaspoon soda
- 3 cups sifted cake flour
- 3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup butter or other shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 egg whites, unbeaten
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine sugar, water, and chocolate in saucepan and cook over low flame until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Stir in soda; cool slightly.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg whites, one at a time, beating very thoroughly after each. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Divide batter in two parts; to one part, add chocolate mixture, stirring until blended. Put by teaspoons into greased cupcake pans, alternating light and dark mixtures. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 25 minutes. Makes 18 large cup cakes. Top with your favorite chocolate sauce. Garnish with sliced blanched almonds to make Jack-o'-Lantern faces; use slices of orange peel for stem.

Secret of Success

Andrew Carnegie, who rose from a bobbin boy in a small mill, earning one dollar a week, to a multi-millionaire, wrote his own epitaph: "Here lies a man who knew how to enlist in his service better men than himself."

Stick-to-the-ribs SOUPS are comforting on chilly days

Dorothy Greig

WHEN there's a bite in the air and the family flocks in with that pinched blue look, that's the time to offer the warming comfort of hot soup. It chases chills.

Peasant Vegetable Soup for a cold day.

Serve it thick, generous with meat and vegetables; its aroma a rich promise of the hearty goodness beneath. The two soups suggested here are just such soups. They will fortify young and old alike against the sharpness of fall days.

Peasant Vegetable Soup

- 1 can condensed pea soup
- 1 can condensed vegetable soup
- 1 can water, using soup can for measure
- 1/2 cup milk

Combine the vegetable soup with the pea soup. Then add one can of water and 1/2 cup of milk. Heat, but do not boil. Serves 6-7.

Scotch Broth—Indienne Style

- 4 teaspoons butter
- 4 teaspoons flour
- 1 can condensed Scotch broth
- 1 can water
- 1/2 - 1 teaspoon curry powder (2 tablespoons water added)

Melt the butter in a saucepan. Then add the flour and cook until frothy. Add the Scotch broth, bring to a boil and simmer several minutes until thickened. Stir in the curry powder and serve. Serves 3-4.

"Going to the Dogs"

Relief at Fremont, Ohio, has been "going to the dogs," according to the dog warden, Hiley Mook, who reported that a large part of the milk furnished daily for eight children was being fed to four dogs of a rural relief client. Mook took the dogs.

Windy Business

Looking up from hoeing near his colony of overnight cabins at Manchester, Maine, H. S. Fearebay saw one of the small buildings tumbling haphazardly above the treetops, finally landing in a nearby field. A freak whirlwind had scooped up the cabin from a cluster of 12.

Bacteria Families

Nearly 3,000 separate families of bacteria are at present kept alive in the American Museum of Natural History. These families, whose list of names begins with Absidia blakesleeana Lendner and ends with Zygosaccharomyces versicolor Sacchettl, are kept for study and identification, and are shipped vast distances for this purpose.

Military Buttons

One of the greatest collections of military buttons is owned by Robert S. Duncan of Toronto, Canada. He has 2,000 army buttons which have come from every section of the British empire and from 17 other countries. They are divided into 31 groups mounted on corrugated boards covered with paper.

Too Much Is Enough

Just as the pen is mightier than the sword, so is the tongue mightier than the fist. Mrs. Violet E. Richter took it in silence and with patience when her husband flew into a rage at being asked to move the furniture, knocked her down and threatened her with a gun. But when he familiarly referred to her as "the old woman" it was too much. She sued for divorce in a Lancaster, Pa., court and got it.

Cranberry Pies Take the Cake

By BETTY BARCLAY

Especially when this early American fruit is used in three such tempting variations of pie lore. Three pies to give a fillip to fall meals are Horn O'Plenty, with cranberry and walnut meats pecking out from a white collar of meringue, Cranberry Mince Pie, and Cranberry Chiffon Pie, with its center decoration of whipped cream.

It was Ellis Parker Butler, the humorist, who said, "Washington, Lincoln and pie are immortal." Be that as it may, pie is America's most popular dessert and the cranberry, which the Pilgrim settlers learned of from the Indians, is one of this country's oldest pie ingredients.

You can feel virtuous about pie-eating from the health score, too, for with the colorful cranberries, you're packing in a good supply of vitamins. Also, for cold control, cranberries used liberally along with other Vitamin A foods are a strong foe against the common cold. You can eat your cranberry pie and have your vitamins, too.

Horn O' Plenty Pie

- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1/2 cup water
- 3 cups raw cranberries
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1/2 cup broken walnut meats
- 2 tablespoons butter
- Few grains salt
- 1 baked pie shell (8")
- 3 egg whites
- 6 tablespoons brown sugar

Blend sugar and cornstarch; add water and bring to boil. Wash cranberries; add with raisins and nuts. Cook slowly until cranberries pop open. Add butter and salt. Set aside to cool; do not stir. Beat egg whites stiff; gradually add brown sugar, beating constantly while adding. Pour filling into baked pie shell; pile meringue on top. Bake in slow oven (325° F) 20 minutes or until delicate brown. Serves 6.

Cranberry Mince Pie

- 2 cups fresh cranberries
- 1 cup suet
- 2 apples, peeled and quartered
- 1/2 cup mixed candied peel
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 cup currants
- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- Grated rind 1 lemon
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup fruit juice (Cranberry, orange or pineapple)
- Pie pastry

Put cranberries, suet, apples and candied peel through food chopper. Add remaining ingredients and blend. Fill pie plate lined with pastry, arrange strips of pie crust criss-cross over the top. Brush with milk. Bake in hot oven 400° F., 40-45 minutes. Makes two 8-inch pies.

Cranberry Chiffon Pie

- 2 cups raw cranberries
- 1/2 cup water
- 3 eggs, separated
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- Dash of salt
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- Baked pie shell
- 1/2 cup cream, whipped

Cook cranberries in water until all the skins pop open. Put through sieve and add to egg yolks beaten together with half the sugar. Cook over hot water until thickened. Add gelatin, softened in cold water, salt and lemon juice. Cool. Fold in egg whites, whipped stiff with remaining half cup of sugar. Transfer to baked pie shell and chill until firm. Spread top with whipped cream just before serving. Makes 1 8-inch pie.

Of course if you do, you'll want to be freshly groomed with a new fingerwave and manicure from the Morgan Beauty Shop. And don't forget that no one can be truly attractive with spots on her clothing. Alemany Cleaners feature an excellent popular-price cleaning service.

Six Weeks Song

When the carnival comes to Nice on the French Riviera, there is a charming custom of launching a new song whose melody is played daily by every orchestra and street band until everyone is whistling or humming it. When King Carnival dies, the song dies too, and the following season another takes its place.

Your Wife in Paris

Tourists in France who wish they could bring the famous cuisine of that country home with them to America may now do so. The famous cooking school at 129 Faubourg Saint-Honore in Paris will now accept American women visitors for class and private lessons at convenient hours.

Cure That Slice

Inspired by the increasing use of mirrors by college swimmers and oarsmen to improve their strokes, sporting goods dealers, Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass company reports, are boosting business by installing large plate glass mirrors so that customers for golf and tennis equipment may be entranced by "first-hand observation of their own form."

Laurel Tree Legend

In Greek mythology, Apollo loved the nymph Daphne. When he descended to earth to woo her, she fled from him, and begged her mother, Gaia, the earth goddess, to save her. Through the intercession of Gaia, Zeus turned Daphne into a laurel tree. From that time Apollo made the laurel sacred and winners in the Pythian games, as well as great poets, were crowned with the leaves.

Versailles in Germany

On a lonely island in the Chiemsee in Germany stands one of the most amazing palaces in Europe—an almost identical reproduction of the chateau of Louis XIV at Versailles. The copy was built at tremendous expense by Ludwig II, the "mad king" of Bavaria, who cherished a great admiration for the French king and his famous country estate.

Boy's Toy

Members of the Charlestown branch of the Boys Club of Boston have completed a 50-inch telescope for exhibition at the Boys Club of America's annual convention in New York city. The boys constructed the telescope in club science classes, even grinding the six-inch optical mirror.

Changed Viewpoint

A young woman in Westchester, Pa., sought to exchange her marriage license for a hunting license. Reason, she explained, was that her prospective husband has disappeared.

Do Not Open Until 2030

For opening 100 years hence, a package of tea has been put away in a safe place by the Empire Tea Market expansion bureau of London celebrating the centenary of the first tea produced in the British empire. The parchment-wrapped leaves were enclosed in aluminum foil to prevent oxidation and loss of taste, and the whole package placed in a lead case.

'Sting' Bible

A number of Bible editions have become known by a name due to some error in printing. Among them is the Sting Bible, an edition printed in 1746 by Thomas Baskett in London. The error is in Mark 7:35, which, in this edition, reads "the sting of his tongue." In other editions the word is bond.

Petite Crime

There's nothing like an apology to soothe an injury—except possibly this one. Rubin Harvey was accosted by a stranger on a Little Rock, Ark., street who slashed him several times with a knife. Suddenly the assailant stepped back in apologetic surprise, remarked, "Excuse me, I thought you were someone else."

Million Tourists

Munich, the capital of Bavaria, is said to be the only large city in the world which annually has more visitors than inhabitants. It has been host to tourists for a thousand years and its present population of 300,000 has long learned how to entertain a million tourists a year.

American Decoration

American visitors to the ex-Kaiser's palace at Potsdam are not only reminded by the guide that an American President once dined there, but are shown the famous shell room whose walls and ceiling are studded with semi-precious stones, and an agate-looking slab which he describes as, "petrified wood from your own country, from a petrified forest in Arizona."

Scouting the Shops

Byrne's was playing for dear life but that didn't keep them from seeing what was going on.

"And those poor innocent children of hers, so nice. That little one's cute as a tick—dances every Saturday at Jack Carney's studio, eats her fresh boiled egg from Robertson's every day."

"Sally doesn't care. All she's interested in is a good time. That poor husband of hers is probably down at Miriam Grocery now, buying the groceries for dinner and ashamed to hold his head up in the light of day."

"It's scandalous, that's what it is, and I'm glad I told John about it in plain terms. 'John,' says I, 'there's no sense in mincing words. You've a right to know what's going on. At that party last night Sally had the family photograph album out and was showing off your baby pictures in public again.'"

Tennis Ball Mystery

Never mind the needle, Watson, the mystery of the bouncing rubber balls has solved itself. French sleuths were aghast, not to mention agog and a-twitter, when they found 600 hollow rubber balls on a highway leading from the Belgian frontier. When each was found to contain two pellets filled with liquid chemicals they suspected nothing less than an international plot to blow something up. Mystery was laughed away when a French manufacturer explained they were just ordinary tennis balls that had rolled off a truck in a routine shipment. The frightening pellets? Heat converted them to gas, which made the balls bounce better.

First Interview

The first presidential interview was held when George Washington decided to retire from the presidency. He sent for David C. Claypoole, editor of the Daily Advertiser in Philadelphia. After explaining his plans to Claypoole, he informed him that he had some reflections upon the occasion which he wished to communicate to the people of the United States through the Daily Advertiser. Claypoole was given a copy of the Farewell address, which he published in his paper in the edition of September 19, 1796.

No Snake Suicide

Available data indicate snakes are immune to their own poison, contradicting a common belief they bite themselves to death when threatened by danger.

Not Pure Light

Artificial light contains a higher proportion of red, orange and yellow rays than sunlight.

"Who likes Coconut Chocolate?" — all hands go up!

Put Coconut Chocolate Cake in Sonny's Lunch Box

Here's a cake everybody loves—but especially men and boys—because it's a combination of two favorites—chewy coconut and rich chocolate. One taste, and youngsters say, "Um Yumm," and the man of the house will declare, "Sa-ay, this is great!"

Wonder why chocolate and coconut flavors come through so rich and full, to the peak of perfection? It's because Spry all-vegetable shortening is truly bland and pure. Make Coconut Chocolate Loaf Cake today, and see.

Secret of tender cakes

You, too, want all your cakes to be so tender and light they fairly melt in your mouth. Why not use a shortening that gives this extra-tenderness—a truly all-vegetable shortening? That way you get all shortening, no liquids to decrease shortening power. All-vegetable shortening gives that added tenderness to biscuits, cookies, and fried foods, too.

Congo's Discovery

The mouth of the Congo river was discovered by Diego Cao in 1482.

Coconut Chocolate Loaf

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup Spry
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, unbeaten
3 ounces chocolate, melted

2 teaspoons baking powder
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon soda
2 cups sifted flour
1 cup milk
1 cup shredded coconut

Blend Spry, salt and vanilla. Add sugar gradually and cream well. Add eggs, singly, beating well after each addition. Add chocolate and blend.

Sift baking powder and soda with flour 3 times. Add flour to creamed mixture, alternately with milk, mixing after each addition until smooth. Add coconut and blend.

Bake in 10x6x3-inch Spry-greased loaf pan in moderate oven (350°F.) 70 minutes.

Spread Vanilla Cream Frosting on top and sides of cake.

Vanilla Cream Frosting

2 tablespoons Spry
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt

3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
5 tablespoons scalded cream (about)

Blend Spry, butter, vanilla and salt. Beat in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar. Add hot cream, alternately with remaining sugar, beating well after each addition. Add only enough cream to make a nice spreading consistency.

SET DATES OF COOKING SCHOOL

Daly City Record To Sponsor Event, Oct. 22-23

Save these dates! October 22 and October 23.

Why? The Happy Kitchen Cooking School is coming to town!

Where? At the Daly City theatre.

Time? Afternoon each day.

The Daly City Record is bringing you two days of profitable entertainment. Miss Carolyn Carr of the Happy Kitchen Cooking school will amaze you with the lightning speed at which she turns out delectable cookery. And as she works she will point out to you shortcuts in method as well as grand ways to clip the budget's claws. Then you, too, can add an attractive variety to your "three-a-day" with no extra burden of time or cost.

To cooperate most fully with the Daly City Record Miss Carr will visit Daly City before the school. She will call on your local merchants so that she can tell you just where you can procure locally all the interesting and practical equipment and supplies she will use on the stage. It will give her time to install her Happy Kitchen on the stage of the Daly City theatre for your inspection.

Miss Carr has a rich background of interesting experience in the Home Economics field. You will find that she has a large fund of information and ideas. She welcomes your questions.

This is your school so some early each day as the guest of the Daly City Record.

NDGW Whist Benefits Children

California's "Homeless Children" will receive a large share of the proceeds from this month's whist party and food sale sponsored by El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West.

The event is scheduled for 8:30 p. m. next Wednesday evening, October 16, Masonic hall. Mrs. J. A. Hulme, chairman, announces that there will be a generous cash first prize, a door prize and numerous other valuable awards.

The public is cordially invited to support this worthwhile cause, Mrs. Hulme said today.

Colma PTA Whist Tuesday

Home-made cake and coffee will be served to card players attending the Colma PTA whist party at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Jefferson annex.

In addition to free refreshments, the party will feature a number of unusual prizes. First award will be cash.

Mrs. A. Dunkel and Mrs. W. Bock, chairmen, cordially invite the public to attend. Score cards are nominal in price.

Gilding Mirrors

Due to an invention by Professor Charles E. Gibson in England, gilding can now be used to replace silvering in mirrors, producing a beautiful, age-resistant, greenish blue glass.

Reno Changes Color

So you think Reno is just a place where people go to get divorces? Well, you're wrong. Statistics for one month recently showed there were five times as many marriages as divorces in the Nevada city.

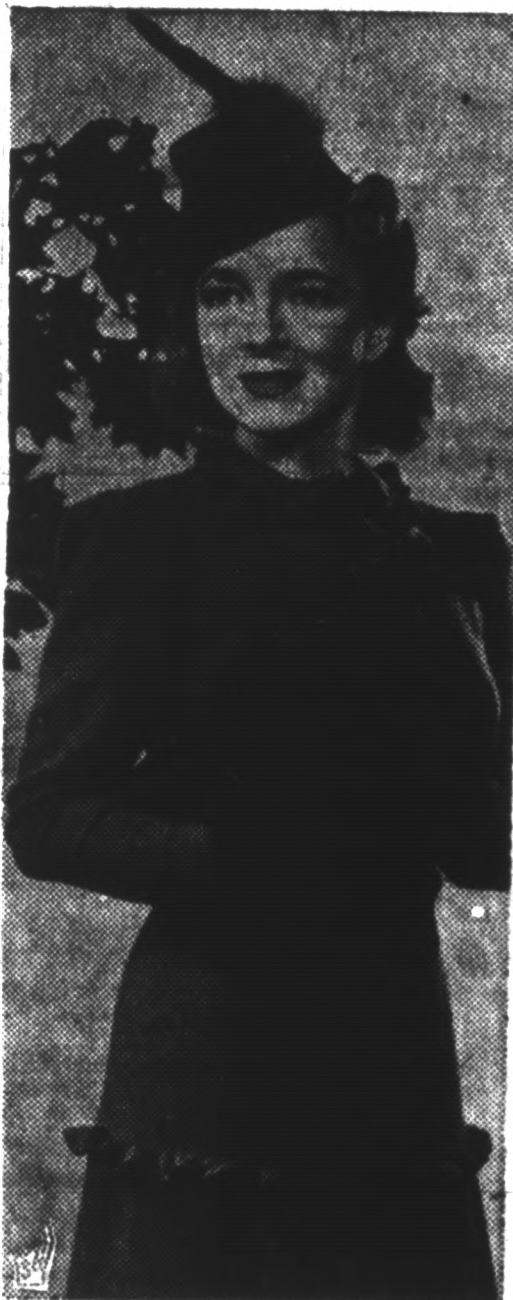

PAIRED FUR ACCESSORIES

Hats and bags trimmed in fur solve the problem of how to dress up your untrimmed coat. Harriette Brin, CBS actress, selects Aranka's very chic ocelot and tapestry green velvet hat and matching bag to wear now with woolen dresses, and later with her nubby wool reefer. The twisted velvet cornucopia crown gives a feeling of height.

The basic coat is now as popular as the basic dress, and fur accessories are being paired to dress them up. Helen Lewis, of Columbia network's new serial "Kate Hopkins—Angel of Mercy," starts the season off in a red princess coat of pinpoint fabric, with civet muff and hat for winter wear. (A Four-Piece Lassie Maid Ensemble.)

HAYES' HABIT

Helen Hayes, now starring Sunday nights in a brilliant new dramatic series of her own on CBS network, finds this simple lightweight woolen frock perfect for travel between town and country. Of leaf-green Rodier wool, its narrow ruffling gives the long torso effect. A brown grain-leather belt is the only other trimming. With this dress Miss Hayes wears a hat of copper colored glamour suede, a lovely new jersey material. The feather is green to match the dress. (Johal Original. Hat by Ruth Co-vell.)

Dirndl Hostess-Slacks

The sweetest Storey ever told to pose prettily in hostess-slacks is Gene Autry's leading lady, June Storey, who is heard on Columbia network's "Melody Ranch" program. June wears a jaunty ensemble of black moss crepe with a striking appliqued felt belt and bolero in black and white. Inspired by the dirndl of French peasant women, the trousers give complete freedom of motion, but are skillfully gathered to look exactly like a skirt. (Marlene of Hollywood.)

HALF N' HALF

Two-toned wool dresses are having a very successful vogue this season. Martha Tilton, diminutive Columbia network singing star, wears one in rose and chartreuse, with a narrow pigskin belt. Its full skirt falls in graceful soft folds, wide shoulders accent the narrow waist, and sleeves are of the currently popular three-quarters length. (Marlene of Hollywood.)

Swiss Birthrate

The Swiss, with the world's lowest birthrate, may soon become a "vanishing race," latest vital statistics about the nation disclose. Swiss babies born in 1936 were 20,000 fewer than those in 1900, and between those dates the number of births a 1,000 potential mothers slumped from 266 to 131. Should the decline continue, Switzerland's death rate in 1945 will exceed its birth rate.

Mail Order Aid

Post office approval has been given to a method for securing mail orders through newspaper advertising tried by a New York department store. In the body of an ad was printed a postage-prepaid label which readers could clip out and paste on an ordinary envelope.

Wild Bears

Most of the Russian wild bears enumerated by game census-takers in America are in Graham county, North Carolina. They were imported by an Englishman who planned a game preserve.

Faithful Parrot

Blackie, a whistling parrot that helps Dominick Palugi in his fortune-telling business by selecting the fateful cards for customers, had the exhilarating experience of occupying the same cage with his owner in New York. Palugi was sentenced to a day in jail for peddling without a license. Blackie went to the cell with him, whistled away the tedious hours by whistling "My Time Is Your Time."

Kangaroo Species

Kangaroos are found only in Australia and nearby islands, yet there are about 50 separate species of the animal.

Disney Correct

Walt Disney hereafter will be correct in depicting white lyrebirds. One just discovered in the Combienbar district of East Gippsland, Australia, is declared by experts to be the first perfect albino lyrebird ever seen.

Little Sir Echo

Chief Park Ranger Perry Brown, of Grand Canyon, Ariz., was assigned to one of the oddest tasks ever given man to perform. It was to rescue an echo. Tourists reported a man crying for help. Brown raced to the scene and found a tourist sitting on a rock below the rim shouting into space.

Good Wading

Palanga, a Lithuanian coast resort 700 years old which has a tourist population twice the number of its own inhabitants, has one of the safest sandy beaches of the Baltic. You can wade out 80 feet on the sandy ocean floor before the sea reaches the knees. It is a paradise for children's play.

Javanese in Holland

At Arnhem and its suburbs in Holland visitors may often see nurses from Java of the Dutch East Indies. They care for the children of the wealthy executives of East Indies concerns who have retired to handsome villas in their native Holland.

Romance in Your Coffee Cup

By Jane Floyd Buck

To the millions of Americans to whom the morning cup of coffee is as much a part of the daily routine as getting out of bed, it may seem unbelievable that for many decades coffee was a luxury enjoyed by only a privileged few.

Yet William Penn paid $4.68 for a pound of coffee and for a century or more thereafter coffee as a beverage was even more treasured than rare wines and liquors.

Today, 4,000,000 women walked into the grocery stores of the United States and each bought a pound of coffee. Another 4,000,000 will do the same tomorrow and at the end of the week ninety-five of every hundred families in the United States will have replaced the coffee in their pantries. Every day in that same week roasters will have delivered 1,000,000 pounds of coffee to hotels and restaurants throughout the land.

Every week 24,000,000 pounds of coffee go through the kitchen coffee pots at home, 6,000,000 through the urns downtown. This week America will drink 30,000,000 pounds of coffee.

There is romance in the cup of coffee with which millions of Americans start off their day as a matter of course . . . the romance of miles of green plantations beneath the hot suns of Chile and Brazil and the romance of great merchant vessels bringing fragrant cargoes of millions of pounds of coffee beans to American ports annually.

Not a small part of the romantic story of coffee lies in the system of mass merchandising which is peculiarly American and which has taken the beverage from the class of luxury items and put it within reach of every household budget.

A visit to the coffee distribution plant of the largest American food chain system reveals an interesting story of how millions of pounds of coffee a year are sent forth to the homemakers of the country at about one-twenty-fifth of the price William Penn paid for his coffee.

This company has developed a system whereby the coffee only changes hands twice, once when purchased by buyers of the organization and again when it is retailed to the customer. Thus, by eliminating the necessity of the bean passing from grower to an agent, through the exporter, importer or broker, roaster and retailer, substantial savings are affected.

Coffee tasting also has become an art and the blindfold test is employed by experts in detecting gradations of blend.

Thus do Mr. and Mrs. Average American enjoy coffee at a few cents a cup which was worth its weight in gold before this country developed its own system of distribution.

Eighty Miles to the Gallon
Development of carburetors which will enable automobiles to go 80 miles on one gallon of gasoline has been predicted by Charles F. Kettering, research director of General Motors.

Regular meeting, Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, F. O. E., Eagles hall.

8:30 p. m.—
Initiation, Court St. Mary No. 1155, C. D. A., Masonic hall.

England Population Increases
England's population increased very slowly during the 700 years preceding 1800, then started a rapid rise which still continues.

Roman Church
One of the places in Rome which interests American visitors is the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore whose gilded ceiling designed by Sangallo is covered with the first gold which Columbus brought from the New world.

Honest Englishman
It's better late than never, reasoned Jesse Wallace, as he walked into a London, England, police station and handed a pair of old-fashioned gold-rimmed spectacles to the desk sergeant. "I found them when I was down here on my honeymoon 25 years ago," he explained, "and the matter slipped my mind until I got home. I decided to turn them over to police on my next visit to London, and this is it."

France Has Most Castles
According to a census just completed France has more castles than any other country in the world—a total of 761. Most of them are in the Touraine district.

Music Typewriter
Musical composition may be speeded up by a new music typewriter. The keyboard has 135 musical notes, as well as the letters and figures, and an attachment enables the composer to write his notes above or below the staff. The device was shown at the Leipzig fair, the city which gave many famous composers to the world.

Shelter Chester
After four years of experimenting, five scientists at Rutgers university, New Brunswick, N. J., have developed an insect repellent which they claim will protect the most susceptible skin from mosquito bites, says the Country Home magazine. One of the scientists tested the new product in a marsh, smearing half of his body with the product and leaving the other half untreated. He was bitten more than 5,000 times on the untreated skin, while insects carefully avoided the treated portion.

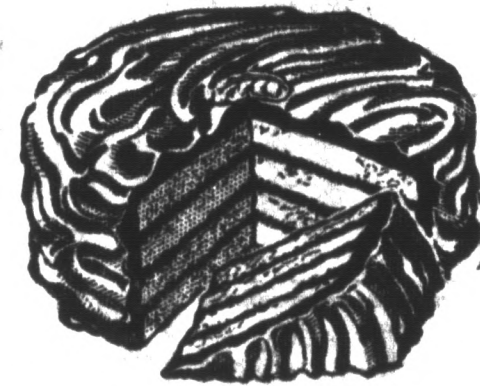

Eveless Eden
Tourists returning from Greece report that Kargen, the capital of the Mount Athos religious colony, is the only place in the world where neither women nor female domestic animals are to be found. Women, cows, mares and hens are taboo.

Flour-Testing Device
A flour-testing device operated by the "electric eye" has just been perfected in Russia, to determine the bran-content of any given sample of flour within five minutes.
